ATTRACTIONS

Amelia Earhart Monument STOP 6

Amelia Earhart was the first person and woman to fly solo from Hawai'i, a 2,408-mile distance over the Pacific Ocean, to North America on January 11, 1935. A memorial plaque on a stone monument is located at this lookout in honor of Amelia Earhart's courageous journey.

Aloha Stadium STOP 5

99-500 Salt Lake Blvd.
Phone: (808) 483-2500

Located in Central O'ahu, the Aloha Stadium is Hawai'i's largest outdoor arena, home to the University of Hawai'i Rainbow Warriors football team. In addition, the Aloha Stadium hosts a multitude of events attracting visitors from around the State including soccer matches, concerts, car shows, and fairs.

Aloha Tower STOP 9 13

1 Aloha Tower Dr.
Hours: Daily 9:00am - 5:00pm

Built in 1926, Aloha Tower is the most recognized building in the state; second only to Diamond Head as Hawai'i's most famous landmark. The 10th floor observation deck boasts spectacular views of Honolulu.

Battleship Missouri Memorial STOP 6

63 Cowpens St.
(Catch shuttle from Pearl Harbor Visitor Center)
Hours: Daily 8:00am - 4:00pm
Phone: (808) 455-1600

Adult: $27, Junior: $13 (age 4-12)
Visit "Mighty Mo", a veteran of three wars and the site of Japan's surrender at the conclusion of World War II. Walk the decks of one of America's most formidable warships and admire the power of her nine 16-inch guns.

Diamond Head Crater STOP 7

Hours: Daily 6:00am - 6:00pm
(Last entrance to hiking trail is 4:30pm)
$1 per person fee for hiking trail to rim.
Diamond Head Crater is a 760-foot volcanic tuff cone, a United States state monument, and one of Hawai'i's most famous landmarks.
Diamond Head Express Trolleys available, see page 15 for times.

Diamond Head Lookout STOP 8

As you exit Diamond Head Crater there is a great spot to exert absolutely zero energy and take in the spectacular view of southeastern Honolulu! On a clear day you can see all the way to Koko Head. Waves. Surfers. Sunrises. Sunsets. It's all here.
Diamond Head Express Trolleys available, see page 15 for times.

ATTRACTIONS

Duke Kahanamoku Statue STOP 3 2 3 3 2

Duke Kahanamoku was a 5-time Olympic Swimming Champion, a 13-term sheriff of Honolulu, an actor in Hollywood, and the father of modern surfing. He is credited with introducing surfing as a sport from the United States to Australia! He was the first person to be inducted into both the Swimming Hall of Fame and the Surfing Hall of Fame.

Father Damien Statue STOP 7

The Father Damien statue is the centerpiece at the entrance of the Hawaii State Capitol. This landmark memorializes the famous Hawai'i Catholic Church priest from Belgium who sacrificed his life for the lepers of the island of Moloka'i. Cast in bronze, Damien is depicted in his later years after being diagnosed himself with leprosy. In 2009, Pope Benedict XVI canonized Father Damien.

Foster Botanical Garden STOP 8

180 N. Vineyard Blvd.
Hours: Daily 9:00am - 4:00pm
Phone: (808) 522-7060

Adult: $5, Junior: $1 (age 6-12), Child: FREE (age 5-under)
Come explore this garden in the midst of busy downtown Honolulu! Foster Garden displays a mature and impressive collection of tropical plants. Some of the magnificent trees in this 14-acre garden are over 150 years old. Visit the Conservatory full of orchids, the Butterfly Garden, and be awed by our "Exceptional" trees. Note: Last stop is at 4:03pm.

Halona Blow Hole STOP 4

This natural wonder was formed thousands of years ago by molten lava tubes running from the ocean. Crashing waves push through the lava tubes, causing water to spray as high as 30 feet into the air. On a clear day, you can see the islands of Maui, Molokai, and Lanai. During the winter months, watch for whales at play!
(5 minute photo stop only)

Halona Cove STOP 4

This rocky cove with its picturesque small beach is famous for appearing in many movies including From Here to Eternity, 50 First Dates, and Pirates of the Caribbean 4 to name a few! Tide pools of entire marine ecosystems live side by side with sea turtles who feed on the rocks despite the torrents of rushing water.

Hanauma Bay Lookout STOP 3

Both nature preserve and marine life conservation district, Hanauma Bay is located along the southeast coast, east of Honolulu. This marine life kingdom is bordered by white beaches that complement the richness of coral reefs; home to over 450 species of fish and sea life. (5 minute photo stop only)

ATTRACTIONS

Hawai'i Kai Lookout STOP 7

This lookout gives you an astonishing view of Hawai'i Kai and was once home to ancient Hawaiian fishponds and freshwater springs. Maunaloa Bay, to the left, is a favorite spot among canoe paddlers, boaters, kayakers, fishers and picnickers. Maunaloa means "two mountains": Koko Crater and Koko Head, the two peaks located east of Maunaloa Bay.
(5 minute photo stop only)

Hawaii Theatre STOP 10

1130 Bethel St.
Phone: (808) 528-0506

Since 1922, the Hawaii Theatre has played a significant role in Honolulu's cultural landscape. Interior restoration was completed in 1996 and the exterior completed in 2004. Recognized internationally for its beautiful ambience, the theatre is listed on the State and National Register of Historic Places.

Honolulu Museum of Art STOP 6

Phone: (808) 971-7171
Adult: $14, Junior: $6 (age 3-12), FREE (age 2-under)

Honolulu Zoo is the only zoo in the United States to be established by grants made by a sovereign monarch. The Honolulu Zoo now features over 1,230 animals in specially designed habitats.

'Iolani Palace STOP 7

364 S. King St.
Hours: Mon-Sat 9:00am - 4:00pm, Sun Closed
Phone: (808) 522-0832
Adult: $14.75, Junior: $6 (age 5-12)

Hawaiian national treasure and the only official state residence of royalty in the United States, 'Iolani Palace was the official residence of the Hawaiian Kingdom's last two monarchs-King Kalakaua, who built the Palace in 1882, and his sister and successor, Queen Lili'uokalani.

ATTRACTIONS

Izumo Taishakyo STOP 9

215 N. Kukui St.
Hours: Daily 8:30am - 5:00pm
Phone: (808) 538-7778

Here, at one of the few Shinto shrines in the United States, visitors can ring the Hiroshima Peace Bell and purchase omamori (traditional good-luck amulets).

Note: Last stop is at 4:06pm.

Kawaiaha'o Church STOP 12

957 Punchbowl St.
Known as the "Westminster Abbey of the Pacific," Kawaiaha'o Church was the first Christian church built on O'ahu. Dedicated in 1842, the church is made of 14,000 coral slabs from ocean reefs that were hauled from the sea by native laborers and missionaries. The church and the grounds were named a National Historic Landmark in 1962.

King Kamehameha Statue STOP 12

King Kamehameha was the head of a dynasty that ruled the Hawaiian Islands for nearly a century. This iconic statue stands across from 'Iolani Palace. Dedicated in 1883, this was the second statue created after the ship delivering the original statue from Europe was lost at sea. The original statue was later found and erected on Hawaii's Big Island near his birthplace.

Note: Last stop is at 4:20pm.

Pacific Aviation Museum Pearl Harbor STOP 6

319 Lexington Blvd.
(Catch shuttle from Pearl Harbor Visitor Center)
Hours: Daily 8:00am - 5:00pm
Phone: (808) 441-1000
Adult: $25, Junior: $12 (age 4-12)

Located on Historic Ford Island, this museum occupies two hangars and the Ford Island Control Tower with a fantastic array of 50+ vintage aircraft, flight simulators, the Museum Store, and the Laniakea Café. Ranked One of the Top 10 Aviation Attractions in the Nation and Hawaii's #1 Historical Spot worth traveling for by TripAdvisor®.

Sandy Beach STOP 5

One of the most popular local beaches on O'ahu, Sandys is known for its excellent bodyboarding and bodysurfing opportunities due to waves that break very close to the shore. Beautiful to look at, but only the most experienced should brave these waters!

(Drive through only)

Sea Life Park Hawaii STOP 6

41-202 Kalaniana'ole Hwy.
Hours: April - May and September 9:30am - 4:00pm

Phone: (808) 259-2500
Adult: $39.99, Junior: $24.99 (age 3-12)

Nothing can compare to a day spent at Sea Life Park! From swimming with dolphins, sea lions and sharks to feeding sea turtles, you will be inspired by their marine animals. Sea Life Park will show you where the heart meets the sea.

ATTRACTIONS

USS Arizona Memorial STOP 6

1 Arizona Memorial Pl.

Hours: Daily 7:00am - 5:00pm

Phone: (808) 422-3399

Free tickets to the USS Arizona Memorial are available daily on a first-come, first-served basis. More details, including restrictions, can be found at www.nps.gov. This moving experience begins with a 23-minute documentary film followed by a Navy-operated shuttle boat ride to the USS Arizona Memorial, and time to experience the Memorial itself. Be sure to visit the exhibit galleries, Road to War and Attack on the Visitor Center grounds.

Note: Bags not allowed in visitor center, but may be stored in locker for $3.00. On rare occasions the Navy unexpectedly suspends shuttle operations to the USS Arizona Memorial. In such case, you will still be able to visit the many Arizona Memorial exhibits, visitor's center and park monuments.

USS Bowfin Submarine Museum and Park STOP 6

11 Arizona Memorial Dr.

Hours: Daily 7:00am - 5:00pm

Phone: (808) 423-1341

Adult: $12, Junior: $5 (age 4-12)

Note: Children under 4 not permitted on submarine.

Submerge yourself in this museum's impressive collection of submarine-related artifacts. Explore the historic WWII submarine and imagine life below the surface. Launched in 1942, the USS Bowfin completed nine successful war patrols. Stroll the Waterfront Memorial honoring the submariners lost during WWII.

Waikiki Aquarium STOP 5

2777 Kalakaua Ave.

Hours: Daily 9:00am - 4:30pm

Phone: (808) 923-9741

Adult: $12 (age 13-64), Junior: $5 (age 4-12),

Child: FREE (age 3-under)

Exhibits, programs and research here focus on the aquatic life of Hawai'i and the tropical Pacific.

Waikiki Beach STOP 3 2 3 3 2

Waikiki was the playground of island royalty. Famous for its soft, sandy beaches and deep, blue waters, this was where legendary Hawaiian, Duke Kahanamoku grew up surfing. This 2-mile stretch of white sand is actually made up of eight different sections beginning across from the Hilton Hawaiian Village and ending at the base of Diamond Head.

Washington Place STOP 7

320 S. Beretania St.

This Greek revival mansion was the home of Queen Lili'uokalani and the site of her arrest during the overthrow of the Hawaiian Kingdom. Later, Washington Place became the official residence of the Governor of Hawai'i and a National Historic Landmark. In 2002, a new governor's residence was built on the same grounds behind the mansion.
