REQUIREMENTS

Admission to Berkeley with the stated intent to major in Economics does not guarantee acceptance into the major. A departmental application is required. Transfer students must apply to the major during the first four weeks of their first semester.

Prerequisites:

Prior to registering for Berkeley courses, you are expected to have completed:

- 2 semesters of calculus
- Econ 1

One semester of math or statistics must be taken during the first semester at Berkeley before a student is admitted to the major. Most transfer students complete 2 semesters of calculus prior to Berkeley, and take statistics during the first semester at Berkeley.

ECONOMICS

Berkeley's ECON 1 covers macro-economics and micro-economics.

STATISTICS

Most community colleges do not offer an equivalent Statistics course. Transfer students must take this course during their first semester at UC Berkeley.
