opening	Hi, everyone. Look at the screen. Let's read it together. Different cultures, different rules. What does this mean? Yes, every country has own rules and manners. When we visit a new country, it is important to know their culture and manners. Today we're going to talk about the rules of different countries. And, (we're going to) tell some tips about our country as a guide.	Hi.	screen board	3m
pre	Look at the first picture on the screen. I see a picture of a house. A man is walking into the living room. But he's wearing shoes inside the house! What do you think about this? Yes, it feels strange to us. In Korea, we do not wear shoes inside the house.	strange! dirty!	screen board	10m

	But in America, people wear shoes inside the house. Let's look at the second picture. Where is this Juhye? Yes, people are waiting for the bus. Are they standing closer? They are standing apart. And there is a huge space between each person. In Finland, it is important to keep personal space. They feel uncomfortable when strangers stand too close to them. If we don't know this, we can get into trouble. It is important to know different rules and manners around the world.	Bus stop. No.
main	Okay, everyone. Let's read two dialogues on page 16. They are eating famous food in each country. You have 5 minutes. Read about what is important in India and France and fill in the table Times up! Sam is eating curry with his friend Suzy. Sam used his hand to eat, but Suzy stops him. Why? Anyone? Oh, Seoin. Yes, Sam used his left hand. In India, it is important to what? It is important to use your right hand when you eat. Because the left hand is for dirty tasks. Emily tries to cut her bread with a sharp knife. But Lucas said it is important to...? Yes, it is important to tear bread with your hands	Because he used left hand. use right hand when you eat tear bread with your hands.	screen textbook	15m

	instead of cutting it with a knife. You all did well. Okay, Look at your partner. If you are sitting on the left, you are Sam and Lucas. If you are sitting on the right, you are Suzy and Emily. You have 3 minutes. Let's read it! Times up! Who wants to read it with your friend? Wow, Joe and Lily read it loud and clear! Now let's move onto the next activity.
post	Look at the screen. There is an email from Hailey. Let's read it together. She is worried about making mistakes and being rude. We are going to write a reply as a guide. Here is my example. Hi, Hailey. My name is Dongeun. Don't worry about it, I will tell you some tips! First, it is important to take off your shoes when you enter a house. Because Korean sit on the floor. Second, it is important to wait for older people to eat first. In Korea, respecting older people is the most important. Now, it's your turn. Write a reply to Hailey and explain what is important in Korea. You have 7 minutes. Times up!		screen board textbook	15m

	Who wants to share? Oh, Jiwon! Jiwon that was a useful letter for Hailey. I loved your tip. Jiwon said, It is important to use two hands when you give money to someone. Because using only one hand can look rude to people. You explained what is important and why it is important in Korea. I think Hailey will spend great time in Korea thanks to your tips.
closing	Today, we learned that different countries have different rules. And we talked about some rules and tips. Next time, we are going to learn how to ask and answer which one you prefer, A or B. That's all for today. Have a nice day and see you next time!			2m

2. main-activity의 대화문 2가지

(1)

Sam: Wow, this curry smell amazing! I'm so hungry.

Suzy: Hold on, Sam! Before you take the bread, let me give you a useful tip.
In India, it is important to use your right hand when you eat.

Sam: Why? Is there something wrong with using my left hand?

Suzy: Well, traditionally in India, the left hand is used for dirty task, like cleaning yourself in the restroom. Because of this, using the left hand for food or sacred things is seen as unclean and disrespectful.

Sam: Oh, I see. I didn't know that. Thanks for the tip, Suzy!

(2)

Emily: This French baguette looks so crispy. Can you give me a knife?

Lucas: In France, we don't use knife to cut the bread.

It is important to tear bread with your hands.

Emily: Why shouldn't I use a knife? Isn't it cleaner and easier to cut it?

Lucas: It's an old tradition.

For French people, bread is a historical symbol of life, peace and sharing.

Tearing it gently with your hands is the polite and traditional way to share it.

Emily: Interesting!

3. post-activity의 편지와 답장 예시

Hi, my name is Hailey.

I am going to visit Korea next week.

I am very excited, but I am also worried.

I do not know much about Korean culture.

I don't want to be rude and make mistakes.

Can you help me?

Please tell me about some important rules or manners in Korea.

Thank you so much.
