What You’ll Need To Take

Deposit And Credit Card Information

*Attention!

Driver’s licence

License issued in the EU (except Switzerland) are accepted.

License issued in the non-EU countries (except Switzerland) are accepted if you have a visa in your passport and at the time of rental have not been in Europe for longer than 6 months. If your domestic driving licence is printed with non Roman Alphabet (Arabic, Japanese, Cyrillic etc), an International Driving Permit (IDP/IDL) or an official translation in English is required together with your driver’s license when you drive in Switzerland.

To drive in Switzerland, the driver must present a valid national driver’s license that has been held for at least 1 or 2 years (according to different car rental company). The minimum age to drive in Italy is 20 years old (age may vary by car category).

*Attention! Some car rental companies would have different requirements. Please check Terms and Conditions during the booking process.

Deposit And Credit Card Information

A valid credit card in the name of the lead driver must be presented at the rental desk in order to pre-authorise/charge the deposit. Deposit: approx.CHF350-3000 for pre-authorization from main driver's credit card at pick up. Usually a deposit will be held against your credit card for the duration of the rental. Your deposit is a guarantee held in the event of damage/theft of the vehicle. This will be automatically released if there is no theft or damage during the rental period. Please note that this
At Pickup Time

Car Inspect
Before you drive away from the pickup station, inspect the car carefully for body damage. Be sure the lights and turn signals are working properly, and check the mileage odometer. Report any defects at once. Familiarize yourself with the workings of the car before you leave the lot. Check which side your gas tank is on, and learn how to use the headlights, windshield wipers and turn signal. It may seem obvious, but you’ll also want to memorize the make, model and color of your car — that way you won’t lose it the first time you park in a crowded lot!

Early Pickup
If you need to pick up the car earlier than the reserved time, please call the store in advance to confirm the availability. Often, you need to return the car earlier the same period that you put forward your pick-up. Otherwise, it may cost you additional fees. Please refer to the Terms and Conditions of your rental agreement for more accurate details.

Late Pickup
Your reserved car may not be guaranteed if you do not pick up the car in time. Please call the store in advance in the event of late pickup. In addition, late pick-up may be charged full price for no-show or be charged the respective rental costs for the delayed time. Please refer to the Terms and Conditions of your rental agreement for more accurate details.

During Your Rental

Roadside Assistance
Roadside Assistance is commonly offered as an optional paid service by your rental company. Keep in mind that you can either sign up for roadside protection at the beginning of your rental (when you do your contract) or you may automatically “opt-in” to the purchase of this service if you use it during your rental — for example: calling the provided number to request help for lost keys, towing, fuel delivery, etc.
It’s always best to carefully read your rental contract and discuss this type of program with your rental agent before leaving the rental counter. Find out what is included and what is not covered (ie ask about flat tires, lost keys, etc).

Cross-border
Most U.S. car rental agreements do not allow you to drive the car across international borders. Additionally, your U.S. car insurance rarely covers international car rentals, so you will likely want to purchase insurance from the rental company at the time of rental. Outside the U.S., policies on border crossing vary by destination and car rental agency. In some cases driving into another country is permitted if you give advance notice and/or pay an extra fee. If you do drive across international borders without authorization and you have a problem, the protections of your rental contract, insurance and other sources may be negated.

Returning Your Car

Gasoline
Be wary of prepaid gasoline plans. Always fill the tank yourself before returning the vehicle so that you’re only paying for the amount of gas you actually used. Try to avoid the gas stations right near the airport where you’re dropping off your car — the prices tend to be highest there. Instead, fill up a few miles away.

Early Return
It may seem counter-intuitive, but returning your car early may actually cost you money. You might have to pay an early return fee, but even worse, your rate structure might change, leaving you responsible for the difference. (If you’re paying a weekly rate but return the car after only six days, you could end up paying a more expensive daily rate.) Please refer to the Terms and Conditions of your rental agreement for more accurate details.

Late Return
Of course, returning the car late could cost you too — many car rental companies only give you a 30-minute grace period before beginning to rack up the late fees. Before leaving the vehicle, check to be sure you haven’t left any personal belongings. Don’t forget to check the trunk!
The most common lost articles include cell phones, sunglasses and umbrellas. Please refer to the Terms and Conditions of your rental agreement for more accurate details.

Check the charges
Be sure that the check-in attendant inspects the car’s body in your presence and that you agree about any damage. Examine your rental agreement carefully for all charges and make sure the agent credits any deposit to your account while you wait.

Identification
A valid photo ID (Passport or National ID).

Voucher
A printed version of your voucher must be produced upon arrival at the rental desk. Failure to present the voucher means the car rental agent may charge you at the local rates. Please note: We are not responsible for overcharges on rentals where the voucher was not presented to the local agent on collection of the vehicle. If you do not present the required documents, the documentation is not valid or you do not have enough funds on your credit card, the car rental agent may refuse to release the vehicle and no funds will be reimbursed.

does not represent your total excess liability which can be found in the Insurance Coverage/Excess liability section.
In the event that you fail to present a valid credit card, there is a lack of sufficient funds available on the credit card or the credit card is not in the lead driver’s name, the car rental agent may refuse to release the vehicle. In these instances, no funds paid will be reimbursed.
