[1번] 대화를 듣고, 마지막에 남자가 느끼는 심정으로 가장 알맞은 것을 고르시오.

W: David, can I talk to you for a second?
M: Sure, Ms. White. What’s the problem?
W: The math tests have all been graded, and I hate to tell you this, but...
M: Oh, no! Did I fail math class again?
W: I’m sorry, but you’ll need to take the summer make-up class.
M: But I thought that I did okay on the final exam.
W: Well, I know you tried hard this semester. And I’m sure you’ll improve if you make a little more effort this summer.
M: I don’t know. I just don’t seem to get any better.
【2번】대화를 듣고, 두 사람이 대화하고 있는 장소로 가장 알맞은 것을 고르시오.

W: Honey, we've got all the things that we need, right?
M: I think so. Let me check the list. Fruit, spaghetti noodles, shampoo, socks...
W: Oh, wait a minute. Milk! We need some for the kids.
M: That's right. I almost forgot. Let's go back.
W: Well, why don't you just go and get some? I'll be in line at a checkout counter.
M: Good idea. We need to hurry and pick up Sarah.
W: Yeah. Checkout six over there doesn’t look crowded. I'll see you there.
M: All right. I'll be back in a second.

【3번】다음을 듣고, Snow Fun Veggie에 관한 내용과 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

W: If you had to pick one healthy drink, low in fat and calories, what would it be? Definitely, it would be Snow Fun. M: Did you know that one-fifth of the food you buy ends up as waste, but around 60 percent of that could have been eaten? Here are three good tips that will help you reduce your food waste. First, make a list of what you really need before going shopping, and stick to it. Second, keep track of what you throw away and try not to buy too much of it next time. Finally, whenever possible, prepare only the amount your family will eat that day. Follow these tips, and you’ll cut down on the amount of food you throw away.

(Cell phone rings.)
M: Hey, Sweetheart. What’s up?
W: Can you get home by five o’clock today? There’s a problem with our refrigerator.
M: Really? What’s wrong?
W: The door of the refrigerator won’t close. I just noticed a couple of minutes ago.
M: Did you call the service center?
W: Yes, I already did. The repairman will come between five and six. But the problem is, I can’t be home at that time.
M: Oh, this evening you have a meeting with Mary’s homeroom teacher, right?
W: Yes, so can you leave the office early?
M: Sure. Don’t worry.
(Beeping sound)

W: Honey, it’s me. I called you three times, but you didn’t answer me. I guess you’re still in the meeting. You remember that we’re supposed to meet at the Grand Shopping Mall at 6:30 p.m., right? But you know what? They’re closed today. We should go somewhere else. Next to the mall, there’s a Max Outlet. Let’s meet there at the same time as we planned. I’ll be waiting in front of the Max Outlet. Let me know if you can make it.

M: Excuse me, ma’am. For his safety, could you please keep your child out of the aisle?
W: Oh, I’m so sorry. (Pause) By the way, how long will it be until we land?
M: We’re expected to arrive in Daegu at about 7:30.
W: So then, we still have 20 minutes left before landing.
M: Right. Do you need anything?
W: Actually, my son’s begging me for something to eat. Do you happen to have any snacks?
M: Well, let me go and check what we have.
W: Thank you.
대화를 듣고, 남자가 사진 앨범을 만들려고 하는 이유를 고르시오.

W: Andy, what are you doing on your computer?
M: I'm choosing some photo files to make an album.
W: Are you making it to advertise your travel club, like you did last year?
M: No. This year I've decided to enter a photo album contest.
W: Oh, sounds interesting.
M: Yeah, but I'm having trouble picking the best photos I've taken. The deadline is just around the corner.
W: Ah, I see. If you want, I can help you choose. What's the theme of your photo album?
M: It's about the people I met while I traveled around the countryside.

대화를 듣고, 여자가 만든 책꽂이로 가장 알맞은 것을 고르시오.

M: Your new bookcase is really nice. Where did you get it?
W: I made it myself.
M: Wow! You did a really good job. I like it with two shelves.
W: So do I. Originally, I wanted a bookcase with three shelves. But then I thought it would be too tall to put under my bedroom window.
M: It looks good there. And the drawer on the bottom will be useful.
W: I know. I'll be able to keep my stuff in it.
M: The long handle on the drawer was a good idea.
W: Yeah, I worked on it all day yesterday.
【10번】대화를 듣고, 남자가 최종적으로 선택한 음악 사이트 회원 유형을 고르시오.

M : Betty, I need to choose a Music Lovers membership type. Can you help me?
W: Sure. Do you want music streaming?
M: M u s i c streaming? What is that?
W: It allows you to listen to as many songs as you want, without downloading.
M : That sounds good! I’ll take it.
W: What about downloading options? Do you need them?
M: I sure do. I want to keep my favorite songs.
W: Well, then you have two options. How many songs do you want to download every month?
M: The more, the better. But ten dollars is too much for me.
W: Then, this type is good for you.
M : Okay. I’ll take it.

【11번】대화를 듣고, 여자가 가방 값으로 지불한 금액을 고르시오.

M : Jennifer, your backpack looks great. Where did you buy it?
W: At Amy’s Selections. They’re having a clearance sale.
M : Really? How much did you pay for it?
W: The regular price was 40 dollars, but all bags are on sale at 50 percent off.
M : 50 percent? Then you got it for just 20 dollars, right?
W: Actually, I got a bigger discount than that.
M: No way! How?
W: Well, I used a five dollar discount coupon I got from the newspaper.
M : That’s a steal! I’ll stop by the store and get one for my mom.
【12번】대화를 듣고, 다음 빈칸에 들어갈 말로 가장 알맞은 것을 고르시오.

M : Hey, Susan. Do you have a minute?
W : Sure, what’s up, Min-ho?
M : My friend is writing a book about Korea. He’s trying to interview some foreigners who can tell him about their experiences in Korea.
W : Really? That’s interesting.
M : I think you’re the best person for it. Can you tell him about your experiences?
W : Hmm.... I’m not sure how much help I can give him.
M : Come on. Just talk to him about your everyday life in Korea.
W : Okay, if you say so.
M : Thanks. I’ll give him your phone number and have him call you.

【13번】다음을 듣고, Mike가 Judy에게 할 말로 가장 알맞은 것을 고르시오.

W : Mike’s drama club has been preparing a musical for the school festival. It chose Hamlet and Mike is in charge of adapting the story for the musical. Today he wants to rewrite the famous ghost scene in a humorous way. Judy, one of the club members, says changing the scene in any way would take away the dramatic impact of the story. They discuss it for a while. Finally, Mike understands her point of view and decides not to change the scene, but to keep the original. In this situation, what would Mike most likely say to Judy?
M: Hi, Tina. Would you like a cookie? These are from Charlie’s Cookie Shop.
W: That famous cookie shop? I’ve never had them before.
M: Then, why don’t you try one? Here you are.
W: Thanks. (Pause) Mmm.... It tastes homemade... soft and chewy.
M: I heard that they’re organic. They’re a little expensive, but totally worth it.
W: I see. I’d like to buy some for my kids. Where can I get some?
M: The shop is in Rainbow Shopping Mall. They also have an online store. But I prefer the one in the mall because the cookies are fresher.
W: Hmm.... Rainbow Shopping Mall is too far for me.
M: [14번]

M: Lisa, how do you like your new house?
W: I really like it. I love the big backyard.
M: Do you still enjoy growing plants?
W: Yes. That’s the main reason I moved here. I can’t wait to add a garden.
M: I hope I’ll see your beautiful garden soon.
W: By the way, I’m having a housewarming party next Friday. Can you come over then?
M: Sure, I’d love to. Can I bring anything for the party?
W: Not a thing! My husband and I will prepare all the food and drinks.
M: Then, is there anything you need for your new place?
W: [15번]
M: Rachel, when are you going to open your T-shirt store?
W: Well, I've already printed up lots of T-shirts with various designs. But I don't think I'm ready to open yet.
M: What's the delay?
W: I haven't come up with the perfect name for my store yet. It's so hard.
M: Hmm.... Are you looking for a name that is unique and easy to remember, like once you hear it, you never forget it?
W: Right. Any ideas? You're good at giving names to characters in the stories you write.
M: Sure! I'll let you know when something good comes to mind.
W: Great! Thank you!

M: Attention, students. This is Principal Brown. I have an announcement about your summer vacation program. We are now in the process of adding one extra class to the summer program, and we are requesting your ideas to help make it as fun as possible. During lunch hour this week, please take a survey and choose one class you'd be interested in joining. The five choices are soccer, swimming, drawing, cooking and ballet. The survey is at the entrance to the cafeteria. Please fill out the survey and choose the extra class you'd like to join. I'm looking forward to your active participation. Thank you.
【서답형 3번】 대화를 듣고, 빈칸 (1)과 (2)에 알맞은 말을 주어진 철자로 시작하여 각각 한 단어로 쓰시오.

M: Here we are at Magic Plantation Park!
W: Look at this! They have a couple of tours. Each costs six dollars per person. I’d like to take the garden tour.
M: Well, I prefer the native village tour. It looks more exciting.
W: Yeah, it does. Oh, what about the free activity?
M: You mean the pineapple cutting experience? I like that, too, because it’s free.
W: Yeah. And it only lasts for 20 minutes. Why don’t we try it first?
M: Okay. We do that at two, and then take the native village tour at 2:30.
W: Great. The timing is perfect. Let’s go.
