“Writing poetry after Auschwitz is barbaric”
—King Gwanggaeto The Great, etc.)

Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sovereign over their own country. Empowered by voluntary civic fund raising campaigns and the donation of related resources and data, Independence Hall was established on August 15, 1987 to help people reflect on Korea’s sad history sover...
NEARBY TOURIST SITES

- Paradise Spa Dogo
- Spavis
- Gwang Ju Land
- Cheongnamdae
- Memorial Hall

MAIN EXHIBITIONS

- The Grand Hall of the Nation
- The Reconstruction Monument
- Exhibition of Japanese Government-General Building Remains

HOURS OF OPERATIONS

- MONUMENT TO THE NATION
  - Hours of the hall, which stands as high as 50m or the equivalent of Independence Hall, are from 09:30 to 17:00 (winter 09:30 to 16:00). It’s a monument that symbolizes the Korean people’s indomitable spirit of Koreans who have maintained the Grand Hall. Symbolizing the persistence and determination needed to overcome discrimination and subjugation, and the upsurge of Korean national pride, the monument consists of 274 stones, each weighing from 3-4 tons, 5,000-year history, stands 32m high, and the wings of birds flying into the azure sky. It is one of the two most symbolic sculptures of the Grand Hall of the Nation. By looking at the Monument to the Nation, visitors can see that the Grand Hall of the Nation is a symbol of the independence.

- MONUMENT OF ANALYSTS
  - A four-season hot spring water park that features a 2,000m²-wide water massage pool and 200 types of water massage and 24 types of water interpretation. Monuments are as beautiful as aesthetic works of art. Monuments are placed to pay tribute to the memory of our national heroes, heroes who shed their lives for the nation. A total of 93 monuments are scattered in the park, including works such as the bell for reconciliation, the bell for unification, the bell for peace, and monuments of Analects. The Monument for the Unity of Analects is a model of the Grand Hall of the Nation. monuments of Analects. The Monument for the Unity of Analects is a model of the Grand Hall of the Nation. By looking at the Monument to the Nation, visitors can see that the Grand Hall of the Nation is a symbol of the independence.

- THE REUNIFICATION MONUMENT
  - The Reunification Monument, which is part of the National Independence Park, is a model of the Grand Hall of the Nation. It is a monument that symbolizes the national reconciliation and unification in the sense of sharing the same body as a single nation and the unity of the nation. A provincial subsidy is available for foreign tour groups who stay in Cheonan or other areas in Chungcheongnam-do. The Grand Hall of the Nation is a symbol of the independence.

- PARADISE SPA DOGO
  - A four-season hot spring water park that features a 2,000m²-wide water massage pool and 24 types of water interpretation. Monuments are as beautiful as aesthetic works of art. Monuments are placed to pay tribute to the memory of our national heroes, heroes who shed their lives for the nation. A total of 93 monuments are scattered in the park, including works such as the bell for reconciliation, the bell for unification, the bell for peace, and monuments of Analects. The Monument for the Unity of Analects is a model of the Grand Hall of the Nation. By looking at the Monument to the Nation, visitors can see that the Grand Hall of the Nation is a symbol of the independence.

- GANGSOO HERB LAND
  - A four-season hot spring water park that features a 2,000m²-wide water massage pool and 24 types of water interpretation. Monuments are as beautiful as aesthetic works of art. Monuments are placed to pay tribute to the memory of our national heroes, heroes who shed their lives for the nation. A total of 93 monuments are scattered in the park, including works such as the bell for reconciliation, the bell for unification, the bell for peace, and monuments of Analects. The Monument for the Unity of Analects is a model of the Grand Hall of the Nation. By looking at the Monument to the Nation, visitors can see that the Grand Hall of the Nation is a symbol of the independence.

- Cheongnamdae
  - Cheongnamdae is a historical park located in Cheonan-si, Chungcheongnam-do. The park was created to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the March 1st Independence Movement and remains a popular tourist destination. The park covers an area of 10ha and includes the Cheongnamdae Memorial Hall, which houses exhibitions on history and culture. Visitors can explore the park’s well-preserved traditional architecture and enjoy a stroll through its beautiful gardens.

- Memorial Hall
  - Located in Cheonan-si, Chungcheongnam-do, the Memorial Hall is a significant site dedicated to the March 1st Independence Movement. The hall is the former residence of Gwan-Sun Yu, a national heroine known for her role in the运动. The hall now serves as a memorial to her and as a museum, preserving and sharing her story with visitors. The museum showcases various exhibits and artifacts related to the movement, providing an insight into the historical context and the impact of Gwan-Sun Yu’s contributions.

- Spavis
  - Spavis is a four-season hot spring water park that features a 2,000m²-wide water massage pool and 24 types of water interpretation. Monuments are as beautiful as aesthetic works of art. Monuments are placed to pay tribute to the memory of our national heroes, heroes who shed their lives for the nation. A total of 93 monuments are scattered in the park, including works such as the bell for reconciliation, the bell for unification, the bell for peace, and monuments of Analects. The Monument for the Unity of Analects is a model of the Grand Hall of the Nation. By looking at the Monument to the Nation, visitors can see that the Grand Hall of the Nation is a symbol of the independence.

- Gwan-Sun Yu's Memorial
  - Gwan-Sun Yu is a national heroine known for her role in the March 1st Independence Movement. The memorial is located in Cheonan-si, Chungcheongnam-do, where she was imprisoned. The site includes a statue of Gwan-Sun Yu and a plaque commemorating her sacrifice. Visitors can pay respects to her memory and learn about her contributions to the independence movement.