다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hello, welcome to Fun Bike Touring. I'm Harry Wilson, your tour guide. Before starting the tour, let me tell you the safety rules. First, always keep your helmet on. Wearing a helmet protects you from serious injuries in case of an accident. Second, you should use bicycle-only lanes. If you ride out of the lane, there is a chance that you could be hit by a car. Lastly, don't use your cell phone while riding. Taking pictures or talking on the phone while riding can be really dangerous to you and others. Now, are you ready to start? Let's go!

대화를 듣고, 여자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Good morning, Rosa.

W: Hi, Tony. You look tired. Are you all right?

M: Yeah, I'm okay. I'm just having a hard time falling asleep these days.

W: Why? Are you worried about something?

M: No. Since I started exercising late at night, it's been hard to fall asleep.

W: What time do you exercise?

M: I usually go to the gym around 10 p.m. When I come back, it's almost midnight.

W: Hmm, I think that's why you can't sleep well.

M: Really?

W: As far as I know, when you exercise, your heart rate and temperature go up, which makes you stay awake. These can disturb your sleep.

M: Oh, that makes sense.

W: So, it's not a good idea to exercise right before going to bed.

M: I'll keep that in mind. Thanks for your advice.

M: Yeah. The cream you prescribed was really helpful.

W: Good. Do you still have any pain?

M: Not anymore.

W: I'm glad to hear that. If you put the cream on for a few days more, your skin will completely recover.

M: Okay. But I don't have any more cream. Could you write me another prescription?

W: Sure. [Typing sound] If you have any problems, please come back.

다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

W: Hello, everyone. I'm Monica Dale from Blue River Animal Center. Today, let's talk about the different ways animals communicate. First, smell is probably the most basic type of animal communication. For example, dogs mark their areas with their smell to send a clear message to others to stay away. Second, when animals make sounds, those usually convey certain messages. For instance, dolphins get the attention of others in the area by using various sounds. Sometimes, they sing to their mates. Third, visual signals are widely used by many animals. Gorillas stick out their tongues to show anger. Lastly, many animals make use of touch to communicate their feelings to others. Giraffes press their necks together when they're attracted to each other. Now, let's take a look at a video clip that contains interesting animal communication.
